Spotlight—Leighton P. Walsh aka Walshy Killa

Jamaican born Leighton P. Walsh AKA Walshy Killa began playing in 1995. He went to college in Atlanta and after moving back to Jamaica returned to the U.S. to pursue his Masters degree. Upon graduating Walsh began working with Beat Street records. While at Beat street, he entered numerous DJ battles and acquired the name Walshy Killa.

Now a member of Black Chiney, Walsh's plans for the future does not end there, he plans on eventually owning a club.

Soca Warriors

Support our fellow Caribbean people by supporting Trinidad & Tobago's Soca Warriors as they participate in world cup soccer in Germany this year.

Leadership is not what you think of yourself, but what others think of you!

Objective of Florida Caribbean Students Association Alumni Association

The Association seeks to accomplish its mission by working to:

- Promote the interests and welfare of the Florida Caribbean Students Association (herein referred as FCSA, Inc.) by organizing the entire body of graduates and former students of FCSA, Inc. members in order to keep the Alumni involved with and aware of the progress and needs of FCSA, Inc.
- Strengthen the reputation of FCSA, Inc. by communicating to others the excellence of its programs and the achievements of its alumni, students, and faculty.
- Increase Association's visibility among current students, and its future alumni.
- Develop resources for financial support of the Association and FCSA, Inc.
- Provide opportunities for alumni leadership and involvement through service, financial support, student recruitment, and mentoring.
- To provide a communication link between FCSA, Inc. and its alumni members

Congratulations to recent Graduates. We look forward to your membership in the FCSA Alumni Association.

If you are an FCSA graduate and you continue to receive information about CSA activities from your school, feel free to forward the information to us so we can inform some of your fellow graduates of what's happening on their former campus.
